PLATFORM STRATEGY

YOUTUBE

Primary hub for motivational content focused on life reinvention, mindset, and starting over.

Why YouTube: People aged 40+ are highly active on YouTube, searching for information, inspiration, tutorials, and real-life stories that can help them make meaningful changes. It's the perfect platform to deliver motivational and practical content that empowers them to take action toward a new life.

Content Focus: Motivational videos, personal stories, transformation journeys, practical tips, and guidance for starting a new chapter.

LINKEDIN

Used to share insights, connect with like-minded professionals, and build credibility.

Why LinkedIn: A valuable platform to reach professionals considering a career change, offering motivation, advice, and networking opportunities to support their reinvention journey.

Content Focus: Motivational posts, career reinvention tips, mindset content, success stories, and professional growth insights.

PERSONAL PORTFOLIO

Central hub to showcase my story, content, resources, and services.

Why It Matters: Provides a professional home base to build trust, share valuable resources, and offer tools that help people reinvent their life.

Content Focus: About my mission, blog posts, free resources, tools, coaching/programs, and testimonials to inspire and guide visitors.

I Want Project: Rebrand Yourself

Dax is 50 years old. For too long, he's felt stuck in a routine—same habits, same environment, same results. He knows he's capable of more. This is his journey to break free, upgrade his skills, and build a new future.
